

LECTURE SERIES ADAPTIVITY AS UTOPIA

SPEAKER:

Jos Tomlow, worked at IL as a research assistant to Frei Otto and obtained his PhD in 1986 focusing on the reconstruction of Gaudí's hanging model ("the model" - IL 34). His lecture spans from the relevance of experimental models and form finding methods in the organic shaped work of Gaudí to the work of Eladio Dieste and his structural and technological explorations in the sustainable design of brick shells.
